

We Gather at the Holy Sup

by Jeff Gregory

Tune: Retreat, L.M.

We gather at the Holy Sup, to break the bread and drink the cup;
To join our hearts in Christian love, and fellowship with Christ above.

Rememb'ring now his sacrifice that for our sins did well suffice,
He paid the cost to God we owed by precious blood that freely flowed.

For three days long he laid so still in Joseph's tomb by Calvary's hill,
Then light burst forth, the earth did shake, the Son of God was now awake!

O Christ, my God what have You done? You drank the cup and now its gone,
Each bitter drop, You drank it down, to earn for Thee the victor's crown.

O Christ, you've gotten all the gain, you've paid for sin, for ev'ry stain,
You've conquered Satan, hell and death, and giv'n to us eternal breath.

How can we thank you, Lord, enough, for all you've done in our behalf?
We'll serve you now and wait to see your resurrection victory!
