

Thank You, God, For Our Redeemer

A Communion Hymn

by Jeff Gregory Tune: Tack, O Gud 8787D

Thank you, God, for our Redeemer;
Thank you, Father, for your Son,
Thanks for sending him to save us;
Thanks for joining us as one.
Thanks for breaking death's strong shackles;
Thanks for raising Jesus up.
Thank you for the feast that's coming;
Thank you for this holy cup.

Thank you, Jesus, for your coming;
For your march up Calv'ry's hill,
Thank you, Savior, for your life-blood;
All for us so freely spill'd.
Thank you Master, for your vic'try,
when you burst the chains of death,
Thank you for your body given;
Thank you for this holy bread.

Thank you, Spirit, Sanctifier,
that you raised him from the tomb,
Now you've come to show us Jesus,
risen to the heav'nly throne.
Come, O Spirit, Teacher, Helper;
show us more of Christ our God.
Make us grow to be more like him;
Jesus, our returning Lord.

Thank you, Father, for your love gift,
he who was so close to you.
Thank you, Jesus, for your life-blood,
spent to give us life so new.
Thank you, Spirit, for your power,
seen in raising up the Son,
Thanks for calling us together,
thanks for joining us as one.

Text Copyright 2005 by Jeff Gregory